Give brief history of what they did to help establish the community in which they lived.

Wm Davis & Mary Goddard came to Wasatch Co and settled on what is now known as the Davis Ranch. He was a farmer & cattle man. They reared eight children. After Grandfather Davis passed away, my father Wm H. Davis, the third child, bought the ranch and carried on his fathers work until his death, May 15, 1939. My Mother Cleopatra C. Davis is still living on the Davis Ranch. My Grandparents Isaac Cummings and Sarah Jones were married in Provo in 1860 and came to Wasatch where they made their home and raised 12 children. He helped settle Heber. He was a farmer & cattle man. My Grandfather passed through the Walker and Blackhawk Indian wars. My Grandmother made the burial clothes for Wasatch Co as long as her health would permit.

Six children were born to my Parents, four proceeded father's death. I am the eldest.
